- Re: Criminal docket and cases of Randall County Court at Law #2
1. Criminal trial week will begin on the Monday of the first full week of each month.
  2. Pre-Trial Motions will be heard by Thursday, the week before such trial week. [The court would like to the extent practicable to commence jury trials timely on the day of trial; therefore, Pre-trial Motions are to be heard by Thursday the week before to the extent practicable or appropriate. Communication between the defense attorney and the District Attorney's representative is expected in advance of the trial in regard to same.]
  3. Docket calls will occur as follows:
    - a. The Criminal docket call will occur each month on the Friday of the second full week of each month at 9:00 a.m.
    - b. The Motion to Proceed/Motion to Revoke docket call will occur on the same Friday at 10:30 a.m.
    - c. The court does not expect nor require, under normal circumstances, that the attorneys appear at the docket calls, provided that the attorneys have communicated in advance with the District Attorney's office or in some cases to my office. The court is quite mindful of the value of the attorney's time, and does not wish to unnecessarily consume the attorney's time. However, advance communication as described herein is required.

- d. Defendants not represented by counsel under normal circumstances will be required to attend docket calls, or bond forfeiture will occur.
- e. While this court will have an overriding policy of respecting the professional time and status of the attorneys practicing in the court, and will be considerate of the time and work of the professional, the court does expect the attorneys to reasonably communicate with each other, to accomplish work in advance as necessary; and further to be respectful of the court's time, and the court's desire not only for the fair administration of justice, but also the efficient administration of justice.

4. Pleas

This court in general will be accommodative & accessible pertaining to plea settings. However, everyone should be aware that in general defendants with counsel pleas should not be set at the time of the docket call; as the docket call necessarily involves considerable time consumption; and further, results in the specific time settings of the docket call to be less literally followed.
